A Public Golf Course with a Private Feel

Located in Charlotte, North Carolina, The Golf Club at Ballantyne is among the finest PGA courses in the region. Passionate about providing a destination golf experience, The Golf Club has continued to receive numerous accolades since inception and was most recently named as a Best Place to Play by readers of Golf Digest, receiving a 4.5-star rating. In addition, The Ballantyne Hotel & Lodge was selected as a Top 100 Golf Resort in North America and the Caribbean by readers of Condé Nast Traveler.

The Ballantyne Hotel & Lodge's championship golf course is situated on a dynamic terrain, carefully crafted into the natural hills of the Piedmont. Golf enthusiasts of all skill levels will enjoy the challenging but fair course that offers laser-leveled tee boxes and multiple water features that come into play through the course. This Par 71, tree-lined course is ideal for individual play and group golf tournaments and outings.

In addition to the championship 18-hole golf course and practice facilities, The Golf Club also features an upscale Golf Pro Shop for his and her golf apparel and accessories and custom club fitting. The Golf Club houses an impressive golf events pavilion located adjacent to the driving range which can accommodate up to 140 guests for tournament receptions. The Ballantyne Hotel & Lodge is also home to the renowned Dana Rader Golf School which can provide individual, group and team building programs.
