SCHUYLER CLARK NAMED DIRECTOR OF ROOMS AT THE BALLANTYNE

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (August 9, 2016) –The Ballantyne, A Luxury Collection Hotel, Charlotte has appointed Schuyler Clark as director of rooms. With more than 15 years of experience in luxury hotel and resort operations, Schuyler has a strong background in executive leadership, operational efficiency, revenue management, and staff management and development.

As director of rooms, Schuyler will oversee all room operations, including guest reception and housekeeping. Schuyler will lead efforts to elevate operational standards and maximize efficiency while maximizing revenue generation for the rooms department.

“Schuyler has a proven track record of driving excellence in customer service,” said Peter Grills, general manager at The Ballantyne. “His approachable leadership style, complemented by his expertise in operations, has positioned him well to lead us in our continuous efforts to elevate the guest experience.”

Before joining The Ballantyne, Schuyler was director of rooms at Omni Mount Washington Resort in Bretton Woods, New Hampshire. He also worked as director of rooms at Union Station Hotel, a member of Marriott’s Autograph Collection in Nashville, Tennessee.

In addition, Schuyler worked at a variety of Viceroy Hotels and Resorts. He was director of rooms at the Viceroy New York, director of operations at Viceroy Anguilla and director of rooms at Viceroy Snowmass Village. During his time with Viceroy, he was appointed on several task forces for housekeeping, owner and management transition and a corporate internal operations audit.

Earlier in his career, Schuyler worked for nine years at Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts. He worked in housekeeping and front office management at Four Seasons properties in Houston, Texas and Santa Barbara, California.

Originally from Houston, Schuyler earned a degree in hotel and restaurant management at the University of Houston. Schuyler and his family reside in Charlotte.
